

Which neighbourhood do you feel you most closely belong to?

We produced map references by geocoding the addresses (via the Google mapping API) and also derived the Ward for each address by looking up each postcode in the Ordnance Survey Code Point dataset. From this we then put symbols on a map – different colours for each neighbourhood and shapes for the ward:

Honor Oak, yellow; Honor Oak Park, green; Forest Hill, blue; Crofton Park, red; Undecided, black; Peckham Rye, no responses.

Forest Hill Ward, circle; Crofton Park Ward, triangle; Other Wards, square

A clear interpretation from this is that many who see themselves as Honor Oak or Honor Oak Park residents do not live in the Crofton Park Ward. Further, there are a significant number of people who do not see themselves as part of a notional “Crofton Park and Honor Oak Park” neighbourhood.

Which is the most prominent landmark in your neighbourhood?

Many aspects make up a community and cultural and geographic landmarks can be very significant. One of the key aspects of the proposed Neighbourhood Area is the way in which local Honor Oak features such as the Shopping Parade are no longer within the same area as One Tree Hill, for instance. This concern is borne out though the comments received (Appendices 3 & 4). So, when collating this, we filtered on only those respondents who including Honor Oak or Honor Oak Park as at least one of their neighbourhoods.

So many responders named a combination of One Tree Hill, St Augustine’s and the Oak of Honor that we have counted these collectively. This focuses on the geographic nature of the replies and aids clarity:

Appendix 3 - What Makes You Feel Proud About Living in The Honor Oak Park Neighbourhood? (Sample of comments)

"I was born, bred and live here and seen the area change over 56 years. I feel an innate sense of connection with it and the people who live here."

"It's a friendly community with great shops, fab train line and lovely outdoor spaces such as Devonshire road nature reserve, one Tree hill and the rec."

"It is a beautiful, quiet, friendly neighbourhood. The lovely Honor Oak Park shopping area has been regenerated even in the short while I have lived here with a real community feel."

"Sense of community - diversity - friendliness - it truly feels like a village."

"So much going on that anyone can attend-great community spirit - lots of businesses engage with the community"

"People are interested in what is going on and the impact on the local area. There is a real sense of community unlike other areas in London."

"Sense of ambition. Ability to achieve things collectively. Good communication with neighbours. Nice places to eat."

"Nice, clean, friendly vibe when you come out of the train station. Also, great green space and views at one tree hill and Blythe hill."

Appendix 4 - Do you have any comments and concerns with regard to your neighbourhood or indeed the proposed neighbourhood forum boundary? (Sample of concerns)

"Honor Oak is named after the Oak of Honor on One Tree Hill. It is ridiculous that the entire hill and surrounding residents are not included in the neighbourhood forum boundary"

"Honor Oak Park is already split between 2 London boroughs, splitting it into 3 wouldn't help to represent the entire neighbourhood"

"Having been born and brought up here it is offensive to say I don't live in Honor Oak Park. The Oak of Honor on One Tree Hill is outside of your new boundary, which is an abuse of history. I'm unclear why you are drawing this arbitrary boundary - look to history"

"The forum should be an opportunity to enhance the community and mitigate the damaging political divides that split it"

"It's a joke. Why split us down the middle? We have our own little high street and a strong sense of community. It's a pointless waste of time by councillors"

"Any neighbourhood plan should include All of Honor Oak Park (street) and other roads on the other side of the tracks. People here strongly feel part of Honor Oak Park too!! One Tree Hill, The Rec and St Augustine's should be included too!"

"Our interests are caught between two different wards, and both of which have very little connection with the actual neighbourhood!"

"You have to put a boundary somewhere, but ward boundaries are drawn up to equalise electorates, not to define communities!"
